Peek at the Week – SUMMER EDITION

Principal's Message

Summer is finally here...

We are wrapping up at school today and saying our final farewells/see you in Septembers. We had a bittersweet physically distanced picnic yesterday to send Joan and Debbie off on their new adventures in retirement. Thank you to Jaybird Creations (aka Janet Priebe) for the yummy and GORGEOUS cupcake bouquets (those flowers are actually cupcakes!)

The plans for the start of school are drafted and we will know more details about what it will actually look like in mid-August. In the meantime - please enjoy our...

...by clicking the google link above. Thank you to Karen Reid for compiling all of the memories. From Pumpkin Carving to Snow Days to Learning From Home - what an amazing year!

Here is a new and improved version of the Grade 7 Class of 2020 slideshow on our YouTube Channel: <https://youtu.be/1JqTKl6tE8> We have added a couple more 'then and now' shots that were missed in the original production.

And a BIG Griffins thank you to Cst. Kelly Seib for being our awesome School Liason Officer and anchoring our Gr 7 Parade at the end of the year. We love it whenever she can visit NG.
